The Company

As part of the UK's largest brewing company, Scottish & Newcastle Pub Enterprises (SNPE) is one of the UK's leading leased pub operators, responsible for developing an estate of circa 1400 independently run pubs. Strong financial performance, continued success and expansion, along with high levels of activity have created unique roles for outstanding individuals, either in the North West or South West .

The Roles

SNPE has ambitious targets to greatly increase pub acquisitions each year and as such seek to expand the acquisitions team. These unique roles require proactive, opportunistic individuals who can implement the business strategy related to the growth of the SNPE portfolio of long-term sustainable pubs. Duties will involve research, identification, negotiation, acquisition and eventual transfer of acquired opportunities to the relevant Operations and Sales Managers

The People

The successful individuals will be commercially astute, ideally MRICS qualified, part qualified or of demonstrable equivalent calibre. Preferably with licensed/leisure property experience

Specialist real estate recruitment gained from within an agency or principle organisation, the ability to demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the issues, which affect the profitable operation of pubs in this market, is essential. Tenacity and self-motivation are a must, as is the skill to plan, prioritise and organise a demanding workload.

To reflect the nature of these opportunities, attractive remuneration packages, including fully expensed car and non-contributory pension is offered, coupled with unique prospects for long-term personal and professional growth.
